

Lloyd Watts-Producer/CEO of Unlimited Expectations/Unlimited Castings - Festival International du Film PanAfricain 2012

Lloyd Watts A 2006 graduate of the Actors Studio Drama School, hails from New Orleans. Lloyd Watts up and coming Producer who's company has also Cast all of his producing projects. Works include Motivational speaking work with Addverb Productions US/International traveling project called " You The Man" based on domestic abuse and violence against women recently featured on CNN, Lloyd Watts is also currently the Executive Producer and Vice President for Benediction Productions an Baltimore Maryland up and coming film company. Lloyd's company Benediction Productions and Unlimited Castings recently casted the highly anticipated indie flick 59 seconds about teenage suicide starring emmy award winning actor Pruitt Taylor Vince, Donzaleigh Abernathy and Julito McCullum from the Wire, which is currently in Post-Production. Lloyd Watts other Producing work includes "The Human Web" currently playing the film festival circuit. Upcoming Producing Pre-Production projects include "Exaction" psychological thriller that will keep you guessing until the very end. "Influence of a Dollar" starring Darryl Jackson Finister Ice Cube's Son, Rhyon Nicole Brown of Lincoln Heights, Kellita Smith of The Bernie Mac Show and The grammy award winning singer Stephanie Mills biopic. What makes Lloyd Watts so unique is his company have also Casted every project he has recently Produced. Lloyd's vision is to continue to work on heart driven internal conflicted characters which allow his audience members to return to their communities with the spirit of wanting to make a difference. Lloyd's company's motto is "It's not about following the trend curve but we have to create it."

