

THE CANNES INTERNATIONAL PAN-AFRICAN FILM FESTIVAL CELEBRATES ITS 14TH YEAR

April 5th to April 9th in Cannes, France
Mr Sidiki BAKABA (Comedian, Director) (Head Judge)

From the 5th to the 9th of April, the Cannes International Pan-African Film festival will celebrate its 14th year by paying homage to independent African-American cinema.

The festival's theme will be "USA: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" and this year, 30% of the works selected for the Cannes International Pan-African Film Festival 2017 will have been directed by American directors. As usual, the festival will have a great selection of films that have come from Africa, the diaspora and the rest of the world.

The programme from the 5th to the 9th of April:

The programme will include screenings of full-length length feature films, both fiction and non-fiction, conferences and showcases, exhibitions as well as a "Pan-African Salon" that will bring the festival to life.

The Spectacular Soirées of the Festival

The opening ceremony (April 5th), the closing ceremony (April 9th) and the prestigious Gala Dinner (April 8th) will take place in Palm Beach.

L'Espace Miramar (April 6th and 7th), the Théâtre Alexandre III (April 7th, 8th and 9th) will be the projection areas. And for the first time in the film festival's history, there will be a night dedicated to the screening of short-length feature films on the 6th of April from 8pm.

The FIFP will open its doors on Wednesday the 5th of April at 7:30pm in Palm Beach. All the activities scheduled for the following days will start from 9am. For full schedule details, please visit our website www.fifp.fr.
